Ex-mayor supports town development

'MISSED OPPORTUNITY' IF CARPETS' PLAN DECLINED

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findnews.co.uk

A FORMER mayor of Axminster has declared his support for Axminster Carpets' proposed development at Cloakham Lawn.

Mervyn Symes, who served as mayor from 2001-2003, believes it would be a missed opportunity for the town as well as Axminster Carpets if the development doesn't go ahead.

Mr Symes isn't oblivious to concerns raised about the development, but says he is sure solutions can be found with "a bit of juggling".

As previously reported, Axminster Carpets has been given outline planning permission* for up to 400 dwellings and up to 12,000 sq ft of employment space at Cloakham Lawn.

The proposal has attracted much media coverage as well as opposition.

There are concerns about traffic and loss of greenfield land - and the fact that the application was dealt with only a few weeks into a 12-week East Devon District Council public consultation exercise on a long-term planning strategy provided more controversy.

As reported in our October 5th edition, an action group called Save Our Parkland has been set up by three residents to fight the application.

But Axminster Carpets says the development would allow it to accelerate investment at its Axminster base and to compete at the highest level whilst injecting an estimated £11.3million to the local economy by 2012.

In a letter to Pulman's View, Mr Symes wrote: "I grew up in Axminster and have been a town councillor for many years and I firmly believe that if this development does not go ahead it will be a real missed opportunity for Axminster as well as for the future growth of the company, which has put Axminster on the world map.

"I accept that the Cloakham Lawn land is a greenfield site but Axminster has to develop and move forward, not backwards.

"I also accept that Axminster desperately needs a new relief road but sadly this will not happen for many years.

"I appreciate that there are many concerns about the Chard-Axminster road and there are justifiable worries about the safety of schoolchildren in Stoney Lane.

"But with a bit of juggling with Devon County Highways, I am sure these problems can be overcome."

Mr Symes also wrote: "We should not forget what Axminster Carpets and the Duffield family have done for our town over the years.

"Not only have they provided secure employment for hundreds of local people, but their generosity has provided the town with many benefits, not least the excellent sporting facilities at Cloakham Lawn.

"Let's not stifle the future development and prosperity of Axminster."

But the legitimacy of the outline approval has been questioned by another town councillor, albeit on a private basis.

Axminster resident Raymond Collard has written a letter of complaint to East Devon District Council.

The letter, dated September 23rd, is addressed to the chairman of the development management committee, councillor Paul Diviani.

Mr Collard wrote: "I wish to lodge a formal complaint regarding discussion and approval of the application.

"While I am a town councillor in Axminster I am writing on a personal basis and apart from any action which the town council may take.

Recycling Shop has raised over £10,000 for Charity

The Recycling shop has managed to raise over £10,000 for various good causes and this is all down to the continued support and generosity of their customers. The Recycling shop where very pleased recently to sponsor Mark Bagwell as he is off to climb Mount Kiliminjaro in aid of The Brixham Fisherman's Mission. Mark heard about The Recycling shop through his aunts Kay and Lynn and asked Tony who owns the Recycling shop if there was any way in which he could help? Tony explained to Mark that if he or anyone he knows has any good usable household items they no longer require and would like to help The Brixham Fisherman's Mission they can contact the Recycling shop who will collect the items free of charge and a percentage of the funds raised from the resale will be donated to what ever Charity is nominated. Mark has a very good reason for wanting to help the Brixham Fisherman's Mission as they helped his family so much when tragically his Dad went missing at sea in 1998. The Recycling Shop was very pleased to be able to present Mark with a cheque for £500 towards Sponsorship for his trip to Kenya to climb Mount Kiliminjaro. Tony said "we would not be able to do this without our customers and he would like to thank them on behalf of all the Charities they have helped The Recycling Shop support" If you have any good usable items you no longer need and would also like to help raise money for your chosen Charity then please call the Recycling Shop on 01404 831264.

Tool centre expansion to be ready next March

AXMINSTER Tool Centre anticipates that its £2.3million expansion will be completed at the end of March next year.

The company is expanding the distribution centre and office accommodation at Millwey Rise to enhance working conditions for its 218 employees.

The company also reports that the final renovation phase of its original premises in Chard Street has begun.

What was known as Gill's Bakehouse is being converted into four mews-type houses for rent.

A separate project, a 9,000 sq ft office development adjacent to the Millwey Rise complex, has been given outline planning permission - and should, subject to full planning permission being given, be built next year.

This development is to attract other businesses to the estate.

MD Ian Styles commented on the projects by saying: "The company and its directors are committed both to the town and its workforce."

"We are making a substantial investment not only to secure jobs for the future but also to provide additional housing and encourage new commercial enterprise to take advantage of prestigious accommodation on the Millwey estate."

Aid convoy pair say thanks to supporters

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

IAN Woodhall and Adrian Hopson invited their aid convoy supporters to the Guildhall car park last Sunday to say thank you and let them know how preparations are going.

As previously reported, the two Axminster men are to take part in an aid convoy from the UK to Bosnia Herzegovina, organised by The Balkan Aid Relief Foundation (BARF).

Their destination is Banja Luka and they will set off on Wednesday, October 20th, planning to be back in Axminster on Sunday, October 31st or the following day.

Although the war has been over for some time, there is still a great need for supplies.

BARF was set up by a group of Land Rover enthusiasts who have enlisted the help of Land Rover owners across the UK for aid convoys over the years.

Ian owns a Land Rover and decided to get involved after hearing about BARF from a colleague.

Ian and Adrian will pick up a box trailer full of supplies in Bedford and join the convoy.

Adrian said: "We have been told to be very careful and can't deviate from

the route as landmine clearing has ceased."

Both of them are very grateful to supporters of their project, who have helped raise almost £950 for BARF.

Ian and Adrian jointly said: "A huge thank you to everyone who has sponsored us."

"Special thanks to Tina Woodhall, Brenda Hutchings, Anita Hopson and Fiona Summers for collecting sponsorship and to Clipper Teas in Beaminster for sponsorship."

More information about BARF is available online at www.barf.org.uk.

No news for park funding

THERE is no news regarding government money for the relocation and upgrade of a play park in Axminster.

Millwey Rise residents have worked with local authorities on plans to relocate a play park on the estate to an area behind the Spar shop.

A sum of £47,000 has been secured through East Devon District Council and a £40,000 Playbuilder scheme grant also seemed to have been granted through central government's Playbuilder scheme.

In Devon, Playbuilder grants are allocated through the county council.

But the new coalition government has announced that the Playbuilder scheme is being reviewed.

Some confusion surrounds the issue as nobody seems to know if grants pledged will be revised or withdrawn altogether.

As previously reported, those involved expected to be told what would happen at the end of August.

But no information was forthcoming and a Department of Education spokesperson told Pulman's View last month that discussions are ongoing.

Almost a month later, on October 7th, the spokesperson said no decision had been made.

Air call-out not needed

AN air ambulance hovered in Axminster airspace but never touched down.

One of Devon Air Ambulance Trust's (DAAT) helicopters was seen above the town at about 5pm on Tuesday, October 5th.

It eventually left and a DAAT spokesperson said it had been summoned to attend an undisclosed emergency — but it was subsequently decided that its services were not required after all.

◆ AALGA members with a £1,200 cheque for Help for Heroes

Green-fingered group nets £1,200 for heroes

A FUNDRAISING project by Axminster Allotment and Leisure Gardeners Association (AALGA) has netted £1,200 for Help for Heroes.

Collections were made at various events over a 12-month period, and a cheque was recently presented to a Help for Heroes representative.

An AALGA spokesperson said: "The association would like to thank all its members for their generous support and also the members of the public who donated at Axe Vale Festival and during a very wet morning earlier this year when the association planted up the flowerbeds on the Minster Green."

Prizes for top posters to four primary winners

FOUR local pupils took the top spot in a recent poster challenge.

Rhys Dwyer, Axminster Primary School, Laurie Quincey, Kilminster Primary School, Lucia Hofstetter, Shute Primary School, and Lily Whitehead, Mrs Ethelston's Primary School, were the winners of recent peace poster competitions organised by Axminster and District Lions Club.

Prizes were awarded to those finishing first, second and third at each of the schools.

Their posters were among more than 375,000 submitted worldwide in the 23rd Annual Lions International Peace Poster Contest.

Mrs Ethelston's Sycamore Class (Year 6 and Year 5 pupils) took the project one step further by producing a hardback copy of their peace poems.

Lions clubs in the local area were so moved by the poems that they will be sending a copy to the international president of Lions in America.

The Axminster club's president, Carol Wells, said she was impressed by the expression and creativity of the students at all the schools who participated.

Motorcyclist dies in crash

A MAN has died in hospital following a motorcycle accident on the outskirts of Axminster.

Emergency services were called to Trafalgar Way, close to the A35 junction, at 5.40pm on Friday, October 8th.

A spokesperson for Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service said: "Upon arrival crews found one adult male involved in the collision between a motorbike and lamppost.

"Crews assisted ambulance personnel and police and the casualty was taken to hospital by air ambulance."

A police spokesperson added: "The 76-year-old rider of a Kawasaki GPZ 500 was taken from the scene by air ambulance to the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital.

"The rider died in the early hours of Sunday morning as a result of medical complications following the collision."

The deceased was from the Taunton area.

Any witnesses are asked to call police on 08452 777444, quoting log 856 081010.

Garden death

POLICE say there are no suspicious circumstances regarding the death of a man in Axminster on Tuesday, October 5th.

Officers were called to an address in the Foxhill area of town and a force spokesperson said: "A call was received around 4.48pm from an adult regarding a male reportedly deceased in the garden of a property in Axminster.

"Police are not treating the death as suspicious."

Two men charged — GBH with intent

POLICE in Honiton have charged two men following a serious assault on another man from the town.

The assault took place in the early hours of Saturday, March 13th.

A 20-year-old man from Feniton and an 18-year-old man from Honiton have been charged with causing grievous bodily harm with intent.

Both men will appear at Exeter Magistrates Court on Tuesday, November 2nd.

Education minister's invite for councillor

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

A COUNTY councillor has been invited to meet a government minister to discuss the funding of schools.

Devon County Council's cabinet member for schools and skills, Christine Channon, will be meeting Education Secretary Michael Gove in London on Tuesday, October 26th.

Mrs Channon is part of a nine-strong party — consisting of local education authority and children's services representatives — invited by Mr Gove to share their views and concerns with him.

Among the agenda items will be fair funding for Devon's schools.

Mrs Channon said: "The current funding system for schools sees Devon sitting 148th out of 151 local authorities.

"Every child in a Devon school is now worth £4,005 compared with a national average of £4,398 — a difference of £393.

"At a time when the financial cake for all public services is diminishing, it is vitally important that Devon schools get their fair share."

The Department for Education is currently looking at the funding formula for schools from 2011 and how it distributes the government's new Pupil Premium for the most disadvantaged children.

Mrs Channon said: "There is no doubt Devon's pupils are being penalised as its rural deprivation issues have not been recognised by the existing indicators and the challenges of rural sparsity are inadequately funded."

Ex-employee accesses and damages files

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

AN ex-employee of an east Devon company gained access to some computer files causing damage.

In Buckerell the former worker of a company accessed the computer files and the company website causing corruptions.

An exact date for this offence is not known but police believe it occurred sometime during the beginning of September.

This is one of 11 incidents which took place during September across the Honiton rural beat patch, say police.

One offence took place in Broadhembury. On Thursday, September 23rd, a domestic assault incident was recorded.

Three incidents were recorded in Dunkeswell last month.

On Saturday, September 4th, a young woman assaulted a man at a residential care home in the village.

A commercial rotator was stolen from an isolated rural field sometime between Thursday, September 9th, and Thursday, September 23rd.

Overnight on Wednesday, September 15th, a derelict commercial building was broken into and a quantity of copper was stolen.

Luppitt was the scene of four offences in September, however, two offences were recorded at the same premises.

On Wednesday, September 1st, a public order and criminal damage offences took place at a residential care home.

Sometime between Friday, September 10th, and Monday, September 13th, a post and gate was stolen from an isolated rural field on the outskirts of the village.

Overnight on Monday, September 13th, a house was broken into and property was stolen.

In Monkton, food was stolen from a commercial premises sometime between Thursday, September 9th, and the following morning.

On Friday, September 17th, a motorists drove off without paying for their fuel from a premises in Offwell.

Residents in Awliscombe, Combe Raleigh, Cotleigh, Gittisham, Payhembury, Plymtree, Sheldon, Upottery and Yacombe had a peaceful month with no criminal offences recorded.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "Overall crime in rural Honiton for the month of September has decreased from 19 in 2009 to 11 in 2010. If you have any information on any of the crimes please get in touch."

Anyone with information about any of the offences should contact Honiton police on 08452 777444 or alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Grant helped more than 60 flood homes

MORE than 60 east Devon homes were helped by a grant system set up following severe floods in 2008, the Environment Agency reports.

Contributions from the Environment Agency, Devon County Council and East Devon District Council created a pot of £35,000 and applicants could ask for a grant of up to £500 towards the cost of flood boards and other products.

The grant system was evaluated during a meeting of the South West Regional Flood Defence Committee on Tuesday, October 5th.

Gordon Trapmore, Environment Agency flood and coastal risk manager for Devon and Cornwall, summed up by saying: "This was a great way of helping people help themselves by defending their own home from flooding."

"Over 60 properties in several east Devon towns and villages now benefit from flood gates, flood boards, air brick covers or other individual flood protection measures making the residents feel safer from flooding whenever it rains."

"It's a great example of how far a relatively small amount of money can go and how effective it can be to reduce very local flood problems in locations where a large defence scheme is unlikely to be viable."

The South West Regional Flood Defence Committee is a statutory committee that advises on flood and coastal risk management and flood defences.

Plea for dog club unsung 'hero' votes

RESIDENTS in Honiton are being urged to vote for an unsung 'hero' of the community.

Jo Coles, who created and runs the Honiton and District Canine Society, has been chosen as a regional winner of the HiQ Hero award, which honours unsung members of the community.

She was nominated by her friend Joy Raymond who said: "Jo has been involved with the dog club for 25 years. She turns up without fail, rain or shine, with her team of volunteers to teach owners how to look after their animals."

"In this day and age when we read so many stories of irresponsible owners with dangerous dogs and abandoned animals, it is heartening that Jo puts in so many hours free of charge to teach our local citizens such important skills."

Jo is set to attend the final award ceremony at Birmingham's Custard Factory on Thursday, November 18th, with nine other shortlisted candidates - all hoping to scoop the overall prize of £5,000 for a community project of their choice and £500 for themselves.

HiQ's retail director Peter Tye

◆ JO Coles has been nominated in the HiQ Hero award said: "This is a huge campaign for us and we were staggered by the amount of entries and the quality of those that entered."

"It was an extremely tough task whittling them down to 10 regional shortlisted finalists, but with the heroes now chosen, we hope everyone can log on and vote for them in their droves."

Anyone who wishes to vote for Jo can do so by visiting www.hiqonline.co.uk.

Animal-friendly local lady rides across Peru

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@hindlenews.co.uk

AN Axminster woman decided to take the bull by the horns and went on a five-day horse trek in Peru for charity.

All in all, Holly Aplin spent 11 days in South America last month, raising money for animal welfare charity Blue Cross.

Holly, 27, is a qualified veterinary nurse and had always wanted to visit South America.

She has been involved with fundraising initiatives for the charity at a local level, but decided to take it a step further.

She said: "I had a letter from Blue Cross last year asking if I wanted to go."

"I have always wanted to go to South America, so I decided to take the bull by the horns."

She was part of a group of females consisting of 14 Brits, one German and one Pole - ranging in age from 21-54.

Group members trekked the Andes and were accompanied by a group of locals who helped carry supplies and cook.

Holly was full of admiration for the locals and said: "These men were incredible. They carried up to 45 kilos of supplies each on their backs."

"We couldn't have done it without them."

Organisers were going to use donkeys, but it was decided to pay the local men instead to help them make a living and provide for their families.

◆ THE group of riders who trekked for 11 days in South America are pictured during their excursion

Each participant had to raise £3,000 in sponsorship, which included the cost of the trip.

Despite camping in tents in temperatures as low as -6 Celsius, Holly described it as the trip of her life.

She came back to Axminster unscathed but the trek wasn't without its hairy moments.

On the third day darkness fell when the group was three hours away from the campsite.

The mountain was a lot steeper than they had thought, the horses were tired and there were no torches.

Holly said: "We got off and climbed ourselves, with the horses in tow alongside a steep drop at side of the mountain."

"We eventually reached the top absolutely exhausted."

She concluded: "A big thank you to everyone who sponsored me to help the animals and to make my dream come true."

◆ SHAUN Vining, of Complete Meats, shows off his award-winning sausages. Below, Anton Bolton, of Colyton Butchers

Butchers were judges' choices for top awards

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@tindlenews.co.uk

BUTCHERS from Colyton and Axminster left the new season's first British Pig Executive (BPEX) roadshow with an impressive haul of gongs.

The formal name of the event is BPEX Regional Roadshow and Product Evaluation Event South West, which was held in Dawlish.

The trip proved extremely worthwhile for Shaun Vining of Complete Meats and Anton Bolton of Colyton Butchers.

They were among 24 participating butchers who entered a total of 128 products.

Only one product could emerge as the overall champion and that particular title went to Axminster's Complete Meats.

The company had a double triumph with its traditional pork sausage, and also won a number of other awards.

Apart from winning its category, the traditional pork sausage entry also scooped the overall champion title.

Each category has a winner, which is put forward to compete for the overall champion title.

But each entry is also graded on a gold, silver, bronze scale within its category.

Mr Vining said: "We always spend time making sure our products are as good as they can be for the evaluations, but we put in extra effort this time round and it has obviously paid off."

"Having said that, we don't change the recipes for the products we submit — everything that goes for evaluation is exactly the same as we sell in our shop, but we did take extra care when filling and cooking the sausages.

"And we're delighted that we did because to be awarded the traditional pork sausage category champion title, and then the overall champion title, is really something special."

"Previously we just missed first place in the category — it must be the toughest category of them all — but this time we did it, and we are thrilled."

"We have been attending the roadshows for many years and find them invaluable every time. They are a great way of benchmarking our products. The judges have a wealth of experience and are recognised peers in the trade."

"To get their feedback and suggestions on how you can improve your products is invaluable."

Colyton Butchers took home an impressive four category champion titles; traditional pork pie; quiche lorraine; Scotch egg; black pudding.

The company had 13 entries gaining a gold award in total.

Manager Anton Bolton, said: "We have only been making our own black pudding and traditional pork pies for two weeks so we are over-the-moon with the results."

"My customers love the black pudding and we're now trying to keep up with demand."

"Making our own pork pies posed a challenge, but we wanted to do it properly. The combination of crisp pastry, soft home-made gelatine and quality pork is just delicious."

BPEX butchery and product development manager Keith Fisher said: "The South West Roadshow had a great turn out of butchers for the first event of the season."

"From the 128 products entered for evaluation across 12 different categories, the judges awarded over half of them with gold awards."

"It just goes to show that the standard of products on sale in the south west is excellent."

"We want to congratulate all of those butchers who took home awards and thank everyone for taking part."

"In today's climate it's great to see so many independent butchers doing so well."

The product evaluation events are organised by BPEX and recognise and reward product excellence and innovation among butchers.

The judges use the following criteria: overall appearance; size and colour; ease of cutting; texture and structure; and most importantly taste and smell.

Exhibition of poets and potters at café

LOCAL poets and potters are currently exhibiting at Axminster Arts Café.

Pottery pieces range from tableware by Mick Crook and fun-pieces by Linda Sweetland to large garden sculptures by Ann Ford.

The exhibition is under the guidance of John Howard-Greaves, principal consultant for Vigil Literary Consultancy, who is also running a course at the arts café entitled How to Read Poetry for Enjoyment and Insight.

A number of pictures by local artist Hillary Harron have also been incorporated into the exhibition, including four scenes from Axminster. The scenes are Axminster Railway Station, the Minster, market day and Arcadia Jazz performing. Opening hours are Mondays-Fridays 9.30am-3pm, Saturdays 9.30am-2pm.

EDDC plea for electoral registration completion

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A LOCAL authority is pleading with householders to complete their electoral registration form at the first opportunity.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) says that sending reminders is a costly exercise.

Local authorities collect information each year to compile an electoral register.

Each September, a form is sent to every household asking for details of those eligible to vote.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Any households that don't reply have to be sent a reminder and then a second reminder. The cost of these repeated mail-outs falls on the council and so by replying first time you save money for the council – and for council tax payers across the district.

"There are lots of good reasons for registering to vote. The obvious one is ensuring that you can vote in the forthcoming referendum on the voting system, as well as parish and district elections.

"By being listed on the electoral register you also ensure that you have a credit rating — so that you can open a bank account or buy something through a credit agreement, to name but two."

Pairs plan to open 'Potters' premises

AN unused premises in the centre of Axminster could soon be transformed if a planning application is accepted.

Axminster residents Sue Moore and John Covey, of Horslears, want to open up the Regent Hall — also known as Potters — in Market Square and create five separate units containing shops, a wine bar, a restaurant and offices.

The applicants submitted their application to East Devon District Council on Thursday, October 7th, and say that if it is successful the equivalent of 15 full-time jobs would be created.

A spokesman for the John Stark and Crickmay Partnership, the agent acting on behalf of the applicants, said: "The Regent Hall is a Grade Two listed building. The building is understood to date from the early 20th century and was originally built for use as a covered market.

"Most recently the building was used as a retail furniture shop, trading as Potters for many years, but has been vacant for approximately two years.

"The proposals will provide small shops which will contribute to the viability and vitality of Axminster town centre while ensuring that this interesting building is brought back into use."

In the editor's shoes

KATE WILLIAMS

The Oxford: pronounced dead in print

THERE'S nothing worse than a book with a sad ending — and this is the ultimate.

After 120 years, the Oxford dictionary will never be in print again as the end of the highly respected language book was pronounced dead by its publishers in August.

Instead, the third edition will be available online only due to the decreasing print copy sales and increasing internet demand.

The Oxford is known as the bible in most UK newspaper offices alone, not to mention almost everywhere else.

In the newsroom, if you are caught out on a word, whether it is the spelling, use of capital letters or hyphens — you reach for the Oxford.

For a wordsmith in whatever discipline, it is an essential piece of kit. But what now? Eventually, the most up-to-date version will only be available as an on-screen medium.

Admittedly, this is not expected until 2037 — but we all know how the years creep up.

But what does this mean for the rest of us in print?

It is no secret that the internet is a worldwide phenomenon in media terms, and that online publishing is a huge industry, which is and will inevitably make an impact on the print medium.

Things are already moving fast and will, in future years, change dramatically.

Already, you can read many newspapers online. Even if the major nationals don't print the entire paper online for a subscription fee yet, no doubt it will happen in the coming years.

Even our local, community newspapers can be read online — in full. The Pulman's View free sheets in east Devon and south Somerset are published on the internet every week. All you have to do is sign up and away you go, made possible by a very clever programme which virtually turns the pages (with flicking sound). You even get an email sent to your inbox weekly to remind you it's just come out!

Even the paid-for Pulman's Weekly News, published on Fridays, is available online for a subscription fee. I wonder what Mr Pulman would make of that.

Most magazines have an online version which can be subscribed to. And now, even books are beginning to be read digitally with these new handheld contraptions.

I don't care what anyone says, I like to hold a book in my hands. I like to read a newspaper wherever I like in (or out of) the house. I like the feel of the paper in my fingers, the (real) sound of the pages flicking over.

The question is, how long will we still be able to do this without the whole media medium going digital?

Will the next generation and the ones after that have an English language reference book the refer to? Will they conform to the looking up of words on the internet or will they just guess?

Maybe the English language as we know it will have died forever by then being replaced with a concoction of half-spelled words with no grammar or punctuation added due to the lazy world of 'texting'.

Chief executive of OUP Nigel Portwood predicted earlier this year that the Oxford dictionary as we know it has a shelf life for about another 30 years.

Personally, I think the fact the dictionary is dying is a great shame and downright despicable. Now have I spelled that correctly? Where's my Oxford...?

BBC DJs grab bite as chippy keeps quality

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

FRYDAYS Traditional Fish and Chips Shop in Seaton has retained its five-star Fish Friers' Quality Award.

Radio 2 presenters Stuart Maconie, Ade Edmondson and Mark Radcliffe recently visited Frydays on their way from Lyme Regis to Beer as part of their Jurassic coast walk.

They tucked into food and presented the award certificate to owner Ash Mitchell.

To gain the accolade, which is the highest possible, Frydays underwent an inspection by a Seafish-approved inspector who looked at no less than 240 aspects of the business.

These included areas like staff training, equipment and — most importantly — the quality of the cooked product.

Seafish is a non-departmental public body set up by the then government in 1981. It serves all sectors of the UK seafood industry — fishermen, processors, wholesalers, importers, exporters, seafood farmers, fish friers, caterers and retailers.

Shoe repair man expands established shop services

AN Ottery St Mary shopkeeper has expanded his operation and is now offering extra services to his customers.

As previously reported, Martin Farrant, of Bay Tree Shoe Repairs, Mill Street, has taken on the running of the long established Ottery business and offers his customers shoe repairs, duvet dry cleaning and key cutting.

He has now branched out and is able to carry out watch battery fitting, engraving and watch and clock repairs.

Speaking to Pulman's View Mr Farrant said: "I am now offering these additional services to my customers. The jewellery shop has gone from Ottery so I thought it would be good to keep some of the services that they were offering in the town."

Honiton Carnival Week 2010

Dear Carnival-Goers Yes its Carnival time again

By the time you read this the dark nights will be here again (how time flies by!).

This is my fifth year as chairman and I am still enjoying it.

As last year, we have entered the Queens float on the East Devon Carnival Circuit. Last year was a very good year for our Queens float. We won four trophies which was very rewarding for the long hours and hard work that go into it. Our Carnival Royalty costumes are some of the very best on the circuit (which makes up for the float). Well done the dressmaker.

Honiton Carnival will be held on October 23rd at 7.30 pm, sharp. All entries will be inside the Business Park this year, so Ottery Moor Lane will be clear until we start bringing them out and heading for the start which is the top of Ottery Moor Lane.

So from 7.30 pm the town will become alive and lit up. There will also be loud music on the floats, large & small, also walking entries. Please show your appreciation for the time and effort that has gone into the entry, not forgetting the cost.

Please only throw coins at the official collecting vehicles. There will also be plenty of collecting tins going around. Please give all that you can. The more we collect the more that we can give the charity towards the 2011 carnival.

Earlier this year, donated money to The Bastion Baton Trust, TRIP and Seeability.

As I've said in previous years, thanks very much to all our sponsors for their continued support for the Carnival. It is very much appreciated. Sponsors are as follows JR Layzell and Sons, Slades countrywise, Bests of Honiton, Honiton Garage, F J Jackson and Sons, homas Westcott, Lloyds TSB, To and Fro Car and Van Hire, Martha Mockford Kitchens, Motaquip, Hillside garage, the ned expert, Mr and Mrs Pat Allen RT Delve Limited, The paper shop and East Devon Garden Care.

With thanks also to 'Geraldine Cotes Accountants' for her invaluable assistance and we would also like to say thanks to Andy summers of the Land Rover Experience for providing a towing vehicle for our queens float at no charge, very kind and thanks a lot.

Collection tins can be collected on Carnival Day from Ottery Moor Lane - Marshalls startion from 2pm -7pm. The tins can be returned to the carnival queen's float. There is a competition for the best dressed collector/s and prizes will be awarded before the procession

Have a great night and enjoy the iluminated procession.

TONY JACKSON

Churchyards also for the living wildlife

CHURCHYARDS throughout Dorset may be a last resting place for the dead, but for some 17 years a scheme has been in operation to encourage local communities to manage these quiet havens for the benefit of wildlife.

Sponsored by the Diocese of Salisbury, Living Churchyards, under the guidance of the Dorset Wildlife Trust, has shown that there are numerous ways in which these peaceful pools of calm and quiet can be enhanced by turning small patches of mown grass into wild flower meadows, while exotic shrubs can easily be replaced with native species and flowers to attract butterflies, moths and other insects. Dormice, voles and many species of birds will all take advantage of managed churchyards to the benefit of all.

This year's Living Churchyards Competition was won (best overall) by St James, Milton Abbas, while the lovely little church of St Candida and the Holy Cross at Whitchurch Canoncorum, was best managed and the best new entry was St Peter at Shaftesbury. There must be many more churches in our area which could enter this scheme to help wildlife and to find out how your local church can help call 01305 264620.

In east Devon it seems that Colyton Parish Council's cemetery buildings have been a focus for the local bat population's autumn swarming activity and over 40 people were able to enjoy two separate evening walks a fortnight ago to watch several species of bat flitting round the buildings, a pattern of behaviour which is believed to be part of the mating cycle prior to the flying mice returning to their winter hibernation sites. This is part of the east Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) Looking Out for Bats initiative.

Driving down to Seaton a few days ago, when the estuary tide was at full height, I parked for a few minutes below Axmouth to appreciate this fruitful stretch of water and marshland and, perhaps, to envy the local inhabitants who have the opportunity to see such a variety of wildlife on their doorstep.

A juvenile osprey enjoyed a spell of fishing here for 11 days, only departing on September 27th and was seen to hunt for fish several times a day and, interestingly enough, it was colour ringed and is suspected to have flown, not from Scotland, but from Norway. A marsh harrier was also spotted over Colyford marsh and a wryneck, perhaps the same one previously reported, although an elusive little bird, was also seen on the Seaton marshes.

Keen bird watchers have the chance to increase their local knowledge on Thursday, October 28th when Mike Tyler will give an illustrated talk The Birds of Devon at All Saints Church, Sidmouth.

My reason for going to Seaton was a cat! My sister-in-law recently moved to a house which borders the beach and, as one might expect, enjoys a wonderful panoramic view of changing sea-scapes and cloud formations. She enjoys it, but her much-loved cat, Kitto, does not!

A nine-year-old neutered half-Burmese, half-Persian, this very loving and handsome animal has, since the tender age of seven weeks, enjoyed a garden in which to play. Now, gardenless, with no trees to climb and hating the sound of the sea crashing on the shingles, her owner has, sadly but wisely, decided that Kitto needs a new owner, preferably one with a garden (she does not catch birds) and without other animals. I understand that she comes fully equipped with cat box, bed and litter tray (she is fully trained). Talkative and charming, she requires lots of cuddles and love.

Can anyone help? If you can, please contact me through the Pulman's office. If you are at the moment catless, but would like a remarkable feline then Kitto is the cat for you!

Don't play the victim, you won

EDITOR — I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw the headline Don't Make us a Scapegoat — Carpet Firm Worries as Plan gets Go-Ahead.

Perhaps they didn't realise that a large number of people who attended a meeting in March didn't want this development or that the Axminster town council didn't want it.

I'm also sure many people will be disgusted to find out that the proposed development will eventually run from Weycroft to Millbrook as shown by Devonshire Homes at a meeting held a few days before East Devon District Council granted approval.

I hope it won't upset Axminster Carpets to know that it has knocked thousands of pounds off the value of our houses, ruined our privacy and will cause us chaos and upheaval for many months and years to come.

But never mind I'm sure the town will benefit from all the wonderful things this development will bring to Axminster.

All the new jobs, houses and all the other areas that our generous benefactor will contribute to our harmonious lives.

Perhaps they will think for one minute that maybe we feel the same about looking out on all these houses as in the past Cloakham residents felt about overlooking a by-pass.

Come on, don't start playing the victim, you won, we lost.

Deeply sad to live in a parliamentary democracy

EDITOR — I was deeply saddened to read in Pulman's View, September 28th edition, of the resignations of Stand up for Seaton councillors.

I suppose it was inevitable that this would happen eventually since our major political parties could not tolerate this intrusion of democracy into government at any level.

We are alleged to live in a democracy whereas we actually live in a parliamentary democracy which is entirely different.

I guess we will now revert to the bad old days of party political intrusion into the running of the town. We are assured that the political parties do not impose their policies at our level of government.

If you believe that you'll believe anything.

What is my evidence for these views?

I think that the treatment Seaton has had from both East Devon District Council and Devon County Council has made it quite clear that I am correct.

At an extremely local level the Willoughby House affair gives clear evidence that the Liberal Democrats were determined to scupper any worthwhile proposal by our town council and were resolved to ensure that the scheme would not see the light of day.

The scheme was initially expensive, although the cost would have been supported by grants and loans, but the eventual outcome would have been highly profitable.

Two of our leading Liberal

Democrats campaigned vigorously against the plan, presumably because it did not emanate from the Liberal Democrats.

Unfortunately, they managed to convince enough people so that the owners of Willoughby House pulled out of the proposal.

We will probably now revert to the situation that pertained before we voted in people who actually cared about our town. Shame.

One less visitor to quiet seaside town

EDITOR — I am a frequent visitor to Seaton and have been for many years.

After a time of living overseas I found it irksome and anti-motorist to find parking meters everywhere, that is until I reacquired myself with Seaton. As I now live relatively close to the town, I was delighted to find that unlike other towns in the area, Seaton had free sea-front parking out of season.

This meant that I visited the town as often as I could, preferring Seaton above others because of the ease of parking.

Now that the season is over imagine my shock when I visited the town and found new meters have been installed.

I am now in my sixties, I do not qualify for special parking concessions, I am not disabled but I suffer from asthma, so I actually look for places that I can park without a long hike.

I cannot begin to tell you what a disservice you have done to the town by introducing this measure. All for a few bob. But the results will be less visitors as seen by when I visited.

The town economy, like many others, is struggling. But now you have added to this by this really bad idea.

I don't know how much this meterisation has cost but it has cost the town a very big competitive advantage.

I live equidistant between Seaton and Minehead and they still have easy parking by the sea-front free of charge, so I guess I will be visiting Minehead more from now on.

£10 Archway Bookshop vouchers are on their way to your door...

Dislike now very evident

EDITOR — I noted in the Pulman's View of September 28th that your correspondent W D Davies from Gwent was suggesting that the EDDC might learn something regarding parking costs in his own town of Cwmbran, for the benefit of Seaton.

I would suggest that he doesn't hold his breath.

I have been visiting my family in Seaton for over 30 years, and during that time it has been quite noticeable that for some reason, the EDDC seems to thoroughly dislike Seaton, and its residents, and this has been further evidenced recently by the prospect of a new supermarket that will go ahead, despite the fact that nobody wants it.

Perhaps they just simply don't like people who are prepared to stand up for themselves and challenge their decisions, which local Seaton people have always done.

I certainly can't see the EDDC taking any notice of parking advice.

Thank you, says faller

EDITOR — I would just like to express my gratitude to the very kind people who offered concern and help when I fell over on a rather dangerous ledge on a pavement in Ditton Street, Ilminster.

One feels rather embarrassed at that time so I did not say 'thank you'.

Club's menu of puddings

MEMBERS of Yarcombe Tuesday Club were treated to a fascinating insight on puddings, researched by Mary Izzard.

It would appear that puddings were originally made from meat and savoury ingredients.

Sweet puddings made from raisins dried fruit and bread and mincemeat were introduced gradually and custard appeared in the 14th century.

The first trifles and fools are recorded in 1598.

Many of today's regular offerings were invented in America — it is interesting to note that it is Pudding Day on November 9th.

Several members had prepared delicious desserts which were sampled with glee and recipes were available for those who wanted to try them out for themselves.

Joan Ewins had prepared a Delectable Desserts Quiz which was won by Mary Smith and Pat Bright.

Speaker's knowledge good enough to have been there

LISTENING to the talk by Ray Ward on the 1975 ascent of Everest many at Axminster Probosc Club felt that he must have been one of the climbers, such was his detailed knowledge.

In fact he was a member of Barclay's Bank International deputised to the task of fund-raising for the expedition.

The first attempt of the ascent had been by Mallory and Irving — without oxygen and with the kit then available — and, as is widely known, lost their lives in the attempt.

In 1953 Hillary and Tensing were the first to reach the peak but it was not until 1975 that the opportunity next arose, to be led by Chris Bonnington.

He had a team of 25 with 200 in the support group. Fourteen days trekking led them to base camp where the porters were paid off while the sherpas remained for the climb.

Following establishment of the base on August 21st the Khumbu glacier had to be surmounted.

The slides conveyed the extreme difficulty and — to the layman — the awesome terror of the enterprise where disaster can strike at any time.

One porter had already been lost in establishing base camp.

By September 6th camp two had been established and the work of fixing ropes for the next stage could begin.

All went well until Hamish Innes was swept off his feet by an avalanche leading to his return to base camp, his climb over.

Beyond camp four — at 22,000 feet — another climber succumbed to altitude sickness.

On September 23rd the final assault started but would take two days so an overnight bivouac was needed.

The following day Doug Scott led the way to the summit, the first Britons to do so.

Their overnight camp at 28,700 feet was at a height greater than man had ever camped before.

A second party then headed for the summit and on their way back were surprised to find cameraman Mick Burke making his way up "to take some film".

Unfortunately a gale sprang up and Mick was never seen again.

The bad weather precluded any further attempt to reach the summit and Chris Bonnington ordered the evacuation on September 28th.

In London at Barclays International, a year to the day from the expedition being announced they received a hero's welcome.

Climbing at these altitudes is highly dangerous.

Casualties cannot be evacuated and have to be abandoned to join the 200 or so bodies which still lie there.

Ray brought out both the danger and the glamour which had his audience spellbound — and sometimes experiencing their own form of mountain sickness.

Did you know that a little piece of New York is available in Axminster. Melanie Brown's Hair & Beauty Salon are proud to be stockists of this professional hair brand Redken 5th Avenue NYC. Now you don't have to cross the Atlantic to achieve glossy, healthy New York locks. Redken has been the brand of choice for some of the biggest names in hairdressing since its launch in 1960, providing innovative formulas and a unique understanding of the science of hair across the globe. Redken is also the hottest hair brand backstage at the biggest fashion shows in New York, London, Paris and Milan. Think Prada, Louis Vuitton, Calvin Klein and many more....

Redken products utilise proteins and moisture to dramatically improve weakened hair and restore strength and shine. Pioneering research has led to the most advanced range in the professional industry. Technology is an integral part of every Redken product- linking hair care, hair colour, texture and styling with total synergy.

All the stylists at Melanie Brown's Hair & Beauty Salon have been trained regularly either at the London HQ for Redken or indeed by Redken representatives visiting the salon. Last month three of our senior hairdressers, Angie, Naomi and Frankie travelled up to London for advanced hair colour training where they were taught by internationally renowned hair stylists. They will be able to advise and discuss the product range, suggesting what may best suit your individual requirements. We look forward to welcoming you at Melanie Brown's Hair & Beauty Salon.

Exhibition has crafty ladies in stitches at busy Westpoint

SEVERAL members of Yarcombe Craft Club had a day out at the Stitches Exhibition held at Westpoint, Exeter, on Thursday, September 23rd and even avoided the streams of cars.

Much to our amazement we were ushered into a third lane thereby passing hundreds of stationary cars and to the front of the queue.

Passengers closed their eyes whilst the drivers filtered into the single lane.

It was amazing to see so many people there and the mind boggles to think of all those sitting at home knitting, crocheting, quilting, patching, embroidering card making and enjoying numerous other crafts.

Perhaps everyone will receive homemade Christmas cards and articles this year.

The group met up at intervals to see what had been purchased and what had been found of interest.

The whole display was overwhelming and it was difficult to point out where the bargains were to be found in the crush.

Eventually the need for refreshment took priority and even then it was hard to find somewhere to perch and rest the weary legs.

A final look around at places we thought had not yet been investigated and a welcome return to the cars which had been geographically orientated in the busy car park and a good drive home.

the churches

RAY Hunter sends news this week from Axminster where the four United Reformed Churches of the Axminster Pastorate are embarking on an exploration of prayer together looking at different ways in which we can make prayer at the centre of our lives.

This is vitally important and it is good to see that Axminster Churches Together supports this.

Following the ministers' meeting on Trinity Hill they had a very good prayer meeting at the Christian Fellowship to which all were invited and arrangements are already being made for a follow-up meeting.

All that they seek to do for God is nothing if the foundation does not include prayer.

Musbury church has very recently celebrated harvest and on Saturday just past the church was the venue for a service for the East Devon Branch of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, who rang for two hours before their service and tea.

Seaton Parish Church is holding a service on Wednesday, October 13th at 3.30pm for care and the community followed by tea.

Then on Saturday, October 16th the Freedom Cafe returns — all welcome and the cafe is free.

At the end of this week there are two important events — on Sunday, October 17th at Colyton at 11.15am, former chorister Daniel Rudge is giving a concert in church.

In the afternoon St Michael's Church, Colyford, is the venue for the annual service of wholeness and healing beginning at 3.30pm — all are welcome.

The Honiton team of churches announces their healing service on October 14th at Awliscombe church at 7pm.

Branscombe church is organising a coffee morning in the village hall, on Saturday, October 30th from 10.30am.

East Devon Christian Aid reports on its recent event at Exeter Cathedral where Marti Nicholls performed and spoke about his 15 years work with Christian Aid, which relies on the local collectors for much of its resources.

Sadly numbers were low and therefore many missed an excellent event.

Christian Aid started only after the last World War and aims to tackle the root causes of poverty in the Third World where the annual deaths every year from hunger and preventable diseases run into thousands, but is sadly hardly noticed in the west.

Brazilian hair blow dry comes to town

FREE SHAMPOO AND CONDITIONER

A NEW concept in smoother and more manageable hair has been taking the country by storm — after it recently came over the Atlantic — and now the latest in hair technology is available on your doorstep at Reflections Hair and Beauty in Axminster.

Keratin Complex Smoothing Therapy at Reflections is the answer to most women's daily dilemma over their hair.

This revolutionary smoothing system infuses Keratin deep into the hair cuticle, eliminating up to 95 percent of frizz and curl leaving the hair smooth shiny and luxurious.

Results typically last three to five months depending on hair type.

Client testimonials refer to Keratin Complex Smoothing Therapy as "life changing".

It rejuvenates and revitalises the hair, giving it a softer, silkier feel that everyone raves about.

Unlike other salon services, the more you treat your hair, the healthier it becomes.

With each treatment, the build-up of Keratin makes the hair: smoother and silkier; straighter and shinier; easier and faster to blow-dry; close to being "maintenance free".

Keratin Complex Smoothing Therapy encases the hair follicle with a keratinous bond to; promote healing; block the effects of humidity; prevent environmental toxins from entering the hair.

Keratin Complex Smoothing Therapy is gentle enough to use on all hair types: colour treated, chemically processed, bleached or highlighted.

This service is now available in Reflections and is administered by their specially trained stylists in the Keratin Complex Smoothing Therapy method.

This system is also known as Brazilian blow-dry.

• Anyone who books an appointment for a Brazilian blow-dry at Reflections in Axminster should mention Pulman's View to receive their complimentary Keratin Complex shampoo and conditioner worth over £20.

Laura joins Reflections

LAURA Taylor is Reflections' newest member of the team formerly working in Seaton.

Laura has advanced qualifications in all aspects of hairdressing and has settled in and found her place within the salon a very big welcome to her.

INDEPENDENT REVIEW

AFTER

SUB-EDITOR Lucie Simic went under the hair dryer to find out what all the fuss over the Brazilian blow-dry was about and here is her verdict:

"I had heard of the Brazilian blow-dry but it wasn't until I did a little research that I found out just how popular the system was. Nicole Richie, Lindsay Lohan and Jennifer Aniston — to name but a few — are all converts to this new technology.

"The process is simple enough, you spend a few hours having your hair painted with the Keratin Complex before it is blow-dried and then meticulously straightened.

"The treatment has to remain on your hair, unwashed, for 72 hours. This is no mean feat, as you are strictly forbidden to tie your hair up or get it wet.

"This is easier said than done, especially with two small children at home and one four-year-old's pool party to attend with my eldest son.

"However, I managed to resist the temptation and quickly hot-footed it back to Reflections in Axminster on Monday morning to have the results revealed.

"I walked into the salon at two minutes past nine, I was given a gown and asked to sit at the sink. After a thorough shampoo and conditioning treatment I took my seat as my stylist started to rough dry my hair with a dryer.

"Wow. One word that sums up the Keratin Complex Smoothing Therapy. I was amazed. I walked out of the salon at 9.20am with straight, smooth, shiny locks.

"I am the newest Brazilian blow-dry convert and can't recommend it enough. At £180 a pop it is not cheap, but it is definitely worth it, but then so am I!"

MNR Mowers Ltd

MNR Mowers have a large showroom workshop space and storage for customers' machines.

It is a very busy time of year at the moment, with the gardening season at its peak.

MNR mowers can boast a large stock including lawn mowers and ride on mowers as well as shredders, blowers, garden / leaf vacuums and hedge trimmers, chainsaws and safety equipment and they are all available at competitive prices.

Partners Andy Moule, Nick Rowe and Chris Rawding are known for their great service and expertise. They offer an excellent and reliable service, with over 60 years of combined experience and knowledge.

All staff are fully trained in garden machinery mechanics and can offer friendly advice and a complete service from repairs and servicing on all types of garden machinery to the sales of spare parts and new machines.

Knowledge and expertise are both needed in this industry as many new products are being launched and introduced all the time.

Older machines still need to be maintained, and may require replacement parts which the staff are happy to find and fit for you.

Dealers at MNR Mowers include John Deer, Alko, Efcio, Hayter, Robin, Countax, Stihl, Tanaka, Toro, Rover and Husqvarna.

MNR Mowers offer a collection and delivery service for all customers in the East Devon area whether you are buying new equipment or are having your machinery serviced.

Bird seed mixtures

There are different mixes for feeders and for birdtables and ground feeding. The better mixtures contain plenty of flaked maize, sunflower seeds and peanut granules. Avoid seed mixtures that have split peas, beans, dried rice or lentils as again only the large species can eat them dry. These are added to some cheaper seed mixes to bulk them up. Any mixture containing green or pink lumps should also be avoided as these are dog biscuit, which can only be eaten when soaked.

Black sunflower seeds These are an excellent year-round food, and in many areas are even more popular than peanuts.

Nyjer seeds These are small and black with a high oil content. They need a special type of seed feeder, and are particular favourites with goldfinches and siskins.

Peanuts These are rich in fat and are popular with tits, greenfinches, house sparrows, nuthatches, great spotted woodpeckers and siskins. Crushed or grated nuts attract robins, dunlocks and even wrens. Salted or dry roasted

Fireworks and Wild Birds

The issue of fireworks and their impact on wild birds is a common cause for concern, especially around Bonfire Night in November.

The RSPB monitors both the legal situation and relevant research to ensure that wild bird conservation is not harmed or compromised.

Sensitive Areas

We particularly urge firework display organisers to avoid locating near to sensitive wildlife areas, such as nature reserves and roosting sites for wild birds.

The RSPB liaises closely with the RSPCA on issues that have strong welfare implications – such as the use of fireworks.

Working together

The RSPB is working with the recently established National Campaign for Firework Safety, which aims to reduce the negative impacts of fireworks on people and animals.

The RSPB liaises closely with the RSPCA on issues that have strong welfare implications – such as the use of fireworks.

Currently, the only legal restriction on the use of fireworks that will protect wildlife prevents the intentional or reckless disturbance of rare birds (these species are listed under Schedule 1 of the Wildlife and Countryside Act).

Due to their popularity, it is difficult to envisage there ever being a permanent and total ban, but there may well be grounds for restricting their use. So far, there is little to suggest that fireworks harm wild birds or affect their conservation status. However, we will continue to monitor the situation to ensure the best course of action for wild birds.

Please don't start cutting hedges yet ...

Traditionally, people start trimming their bushes at this time of year once the breeding season is over and before birds start scoping out roost sites. The RSPB always suggests waiting until later in the winter, but this year it's even more important than recent years.

RSPB says that cutting hedges back now would deprive birds of a vital natural food source, especially as berries become more edible and a more important food source after the first frosts when they become softer. The RSPB is appealing to gardeners, farmers and councils not to cut hedges until later in the winter or very early spring when all the berries and fruit have been eaten.

Rotate hedge cutting

They are also suggesting cutting hedges on rotation as cutting some hedgerow species every year will prevent the plants from producing large amounts of berries. Many bird species will benefit from this including residents like bullfinches and song thrushes and winter migrants such as redwings and fieldfares.

Richard James, RSPB Wildlife Adviser says: 'The autumn berry and fruit crop is an important food source for many birds. If cutting can be put off until later in the year it can help provide our birds with an additional food supply.

Plenty of Berries

"Usually, once any late nesters have flown the nest we would say it was a good time to start tidying hedgerows and trimming bushes and shrubs.

They can get straggly and when they are stripped bare of berries they are of less use to birds. But this year, the weather only started to get really chilly in the last few days, and there are still plenty of berries on many hedges, in gardens and across the countryside. We'd urge anyone thinking of a tidy up to wait just a few more weeks until the natural food has been eaten."

COLYTON FOOTBALL CLUB – CENTENARY SEASON 2010-11

The Colyton Association Football Club started its football life in season 1910-11 playing in The Perry Street & District Football League. The record books will show that it was not the most auspicious of starts finishing bottom of the league with a record of:

P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
16	0	0	16	8	116	0

Obviously things improved and slowly but surely Colyton established themselves as a very well respected footballing side. The first few seasons saw home games being played out of the town in the village of Umborne. The club then moved to a pitch called 'Sheeps Nose' which was on top of Mount Hill. The home ground moved again to Hillhead to Bolt Field, near the Railway Station. After World War 2 the home finally settled on the long standing home at Chantry Bridge. The farmer who owned the field lived along side the pitch and he was very keen on football and watched every home game. He charged an annual rent of £10 per season with a bonus that he reduced the rent every time the club won a home game.

The 1920's were a very successful time for the club highlighted in 1926 when the club won the prestigious Morrison Bell Cup, an amazing feat at the time for a small 'village' team. The opponents in the final were Budleigh Salterton and the game ended as a draw. The replay was held at Honiton Town and the victorious team returned to Colyton by train, where they were met by the Towns brass band and then they paraded the cup through the lanes to a reception in the Town Hall attended by virtually ever inhabitants of the town.

The 1950's saw Colyton leave Perry Street football and join the ranks of the Exeter & District League. They soon become a real force in local football with notable players such as Harold Gooding, Dennis Parr and Ken Clifford Snr leading the way.

Over the seasons Colyton have had won many cups and league titles along the way but have always had their feet on the ground as a community club which supports the local community and also values the support it receives from the community. There have been many generous sponsors who have supported Colyton FC over the many seasons and the club are extremely grateful for all the donations and help it has received. The current kit sponsors for both the first team and Reserves are local accountants CRW Accountants, the word of Colyton has also spread with the warm up tops being sponsored by Malvern based Company – Pulsar. The club have now relocated to the Peace Memorial Ground, and the pitches and open spaces here are the envy of many clubs. Currently the first team play in Devon & Exeter Division 2, after being promoted last season from Division 3. The Reserves play in Division 8.

Being the Centenary season there are many events

● Colyton FC First Team

planned, several have already taken place. The first team entertain an Exeter City Under 18s and the Reserves entertain a team from Heart FM in a couple of great pre season matches. There have been coffee mornings, exhibitions of club history, a football quiz and even a church service to commemorate the 100 years of the club. All of these events were extremely well attended. This seasons presentation night will take place in the grand surroundings of the main hall at Exeter University on Saturday 25th June 2011 with special guest speaker – The ex-Liverpool and Aston Villa striker Dean Saunders. Many other events are planned so watch this space for more details. Club merchandise is available all displaying the centenary crest, items such as polo shirts, hoodies and enamel badges are available from clubhouse bar or club members.

So what does the future hold in store? Knowing how difficult it is to predict what will happen in football it would take a very brave man to predict the future but I believe the signs are very positive.

There is a great group of young players coming through the ranks, a hard working committee, a very loyal fan base, a sound financial footing and I see no reason why in say three or four seasons the club cannot be playing in the Devon & Exeter Premier League. In closing a huge thank you and debt of gratitude that everyone owes to all those who went before and helped to make this club what it is today as we proudly take Colyton FC into its second century.

PROPERTIES OF THE WEEK

LYME REGIS - £300,000-£325,000

The property comprises a spacious detached bungalow probably built in the 1960's with cavity walls part brick faced and part rendered beneath a tiled roof. The property would benefit from some updating.

Coombe Warren is set in good sized, mature and secluded gardens and from an elevated location enjoys extensive and attractive views across surrounding countryside. The property is quietly situated fronting a country lane on the outskirts of the East Devon village of Uplyme within about ½ mile of the village centre. Approximately 1 ½ miles distant is the seaside at Lyme Regis.

Lyme Regis is a picturesque coastal town noted for its many character buildings, centuries old Cobb Harbour and unspoilt surrounding countryside. The town centre provides good shopping facilities for day to day needs and the larger centres of Taunton and Exeter are both about 28 miles away. There is a main line railway station at Axminster (6 miles inland). In Lyme Regis there is also a sailing club, bowls, golf course, theatre, cinema and numerous local societies.

The town is situated on the beautiful and unspoilt Devon and Dorset 'Jurassic Coast' awarded World Heritage Site status by UNESCO in December 2001.

Terry New - Denture Clinic

Terry New's Denture clinic offers a service that few can compete with. Terry has been in the denture business for more than 30 years and got introduced to the business by a relative who was a technician as well. He visits a lot of homes, and is one of the few practices in the country who is legally qualified to make dentures without the involvement of a dentist. He can make dentures straight to the public, which saves a lot of time and hassle.

"I do a lot of home visits, and meet a lot of people and go to a lot of residential homes". Terry said. "I offer one on one service, at competitive prices". Prices are extremely competitive even for those with a limited budget. Terry also offers a denture repair service, while customers wait.

"As i work from home, i do offer service at the weekends, if i am around". Based near Ashcot in Somerset, Terry can do home visits within a 25 mile radius of his home. For more information please call 01458 210039 or cut out and keep this advertisement for future reference.

SWALLOWCLIFFE RETIREMENT HOTEL

~ Old Beer Road, Seaton, Devon EX12 2PZ Telephone 01297 22629 ~

Swallowcliffe is situated in a quiet, pleasant, residential area on the outskirts of Seaton overlooking one of the most beautiful coastal scenes in Devon yet also close to local amenities. The original part of the building dates back to the mid Victorian period and anecdotal evidence suggests that it was once owned by Queen Victoria's surgeon Sir John Eric Ericksen.

Since then it has undergone various sympathetic extensions and today is run by M & J Care Homes Ltd; a company with great experience in providing high quality professional care, in a number of Care Homes in the South West. We provide comprehensive care tailored to each individuals needs and all our staff are trained to the highest standards. Most bedrooms enjoy either sea views to the front or landscaped gardens to the rear and we are happy to accept placements for both permanent and respite care. We cater for all dietary needs such as diabetics and gluten allergy.

Swallowcliffe has a two recently refurbished first floor bedrooms available with commanding south facing views over the sea and cliffs. To view please ring Judith on 01297 22629.

Pinhay House - Leading the way in Elderly Care

Seaton Nursing Home joins innovative TV Channel!

How do you choose a future home for yourself or your loved ones? How can you tell if the home you like will give the right level of care? At Pinhay House we know the problems you face finding the right home, we understand your worries. Which is why at Pinhay you can be assured of receiving a warm sympathetic welcome.

After twenty-two years caring for the elderly at Pinhay, we feel able to advise you and your family about the care that you are looking for. Our staff are trained to the highest standards, both in-house and in gaining NVQ's. We specialise in the care of people with Dementia. We have an Activities team working seven days a week to encourage the continuation of Life Skills amongst our residents, motivation and enthusiasm is high. Our excellent relationship with local practitioner's assists us in planning and implementing our residents care, the satisfaction we feel from our success results in a highly motivated team and contented residents.

At Pinhay we can answer your questions and alleviate your concerns. Talk to us before you make any decisions.

In an exciting launch event at the Seaton Nursing Home, staff celebrated the home's membership of the Aged Care Channel (ACC) – the interactive educational TV channel, that's revolutionising training in the Care Home sector.

This is the first time television has been used to deliver training and best practise learning direct to care home staff. The channel is only available to members who become subscribers to the Age Care Channel.

"The commitment of progressive care home managers like Katy Twidle, accounts for the success of the interactive TV training", says ACC's senior support manager, Michael Broughton. "It's great to see that when local homes like the Seaton Nursing Home are committed to continuous improvement, we can help connect to a wider national community striving for the best practice".

Seaton is now viewing these educational programmes, twice a month and staff, are taking the time to consider the serious messages about improving the quality of residents care. They also participate actively in the programme. During each programme, there are pre questionnaires and post questionnaires, where staff interact, and can measure the information they have learnt. Every session is completed with each member of staff receiving a certificate of attendance.

Seaton Nursing Home is continually investing in the quality of care, which its employee's, delivers to the residents. From now on, ACC's live and interactive TV programmes will become an integral part of the quality training at the care home in Seaton.

Developed by an award-winning team featuring leading international experts, the programmes are filmed in actual care homes with real staff and residents.

"The commitment of progressive care home managers like Katy Twidle, accounts for the success of the interactive TV training", says ACC's senior support manager, Michael Broughton. "It's great to see that when local homes like the Seaton Nursing Home are committed to continuous improvement, we can help connect to a wider national community striving for the best practice".

GOLDEN YEARS*Caring for the elderlyThistlegate House

It is the uniqueness of Thistlegate House that sets it apart from all other Residential or Nursing care establishments, and it is this same uniqueness which is carried through to the philosophy of care which recognises that we as individuals are all unique and therefore wish for our care to be provided in a unique manner. This requires excellent understanding and communication from the care team that has been hand picked by the owners of Thistlegate House for their experience, professionalism, qualifications and not least their empathetic caring nature, dedication and excellent communication skills which are vital in providing individualistic care of this nature. So why choose Thistlegate House? perhaps:-

- For the unique "Arts and Crafts" design which remains virtually unaltered from the original architects vision and therefore
- maintaining the calm relaxed ambience of a fine elegant country residence.
- For the idyllic elevated South facing position of Thistlegate House which affords exceptional views over the surrounding countryside and across to Lyme Bay.
- For the four acres of formal, landscaped, natural and kitchen gardens which may well have been originally designed by Gertrude Jekyll and included a terrace wall of open brickwork, a sunken parterre rose garden and pergola.
- For the spacious accommodation which is traditionally decorated with soft furnishings that includes bespoke Axminster carpet together with fine bespoke oak joinery.
- For the not one but two qualified registered managers with approaching thirty years experience who are also the "live in" owners which ensures that the very highest possible standards of care are

- maintained at all times.
- For the excellent dedicated hand picked care team whose qualities include not only professionalism, qualifications to RGN level but also an empathetic caring nature and excellent communication skills.
- For the excellent traditional menus prepared by our professional chefs whose past experience have included preparing evening dinner for high ranking members of our Royal Family.
- For the pleasantly surprising fee levels which reflects the Thistlegate House philosophy that the very highest possible standards of care should be available to all. We believe that Thistlegate House can only be truly appreciated by a personal visit, therefore should you wish to arrange an appointment please contact Mrs. June Webb on 01297 560569.

Honiton Hearing

Colin Eaton RHAD, FSHAA is a registered Hearing Aid Audiologist and Hearing Aid Dispenser who together with his wife, Samantha, own and run HONITON HEARING CENTRE. Colin and Sam provide a personal and friendly service to all those suffering hearing loss, including visiting people in their own home for free help and advice.

However, not all their clients are local! Mick Whittle was on holiday in Devon when he heard of the excellent service that Colin offered and arranged an appointment. Mick, a Lincolnshire man, now in his fifties, has an active "outdoor" lifestyle; a lorry driver with a passion for driving steam trains, Mick was constantly irritated and frustrated by having to ask his family and friends to repeat themselves when he had missed parts of the conversation. Some underlying tinnitus compounded the situation. Mick had been told he was only a "couple of points" away from being totally deaf and nothing could be done to help.

Mick says "I was a little hesitant at first, but Colin soon put me at ease and explained the whole process as we went through the hearing test. I had prepared myself to hear bad news but was happy and very relieved to hear that I was not close to deafness, but had only lost a section of my hearing pattern." "Colin's expertise and knowledge of hearing aids is phenomenal, he quickly identified a range of hearing instruments to suit my life style, covering work, social life and budget."

"It is good to hear that Colin does home visits, although I will not expect him to come all the way to me! The service and expertise I received was second to none, so I will always visit the shop.....

It does also mean I get an excuse to have a break in Devon."

"I would recommend Colin to anyone, after being told so many times there was nothing that could be done for me, I was so pleased to hear that he could help."

HONITON HEARING pride themselves on offering customers excellent service for a fair price. They are not tied to any one manufacturer, as Colin is an "independent" hearing aid dispenser, so can choose from a large variety of hearing aids to suit individual need and budget.

Clarondene, a caring, single-story residential home in the heart of beautiful Lyme Regis

NEWS FROM CLARONDENE

Doris has always loved flowers, so Clarondene has provided her with a wonderful collection of colour outside her window now that her active gardening days are over. The perfume from the window boxes fills her room and the flowers are the first thing she sees when her curtains are drawn for her in the morning. Now she has some lovely pictures to send to her friend Hazel, who sends snaps of her garden every summer.

THE WINDOW BOXES

OUR COLOURFUL COTTAGE GARDEN

The winter did its worst last year and we lost many bulbs and some quite established shrubs, but we have thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful summer and all the colours of our little sun trap garden

101 YEARS AND RELAXING

Bill enjoys a daily pipe, weather permitting and has had the "Birthday of the Year" with a singalong after supper, a visit from the Mayor and her Deputy and lots of happy celebrations. He spent a lifetime as a radio engineer with top-secret exploits during World War 2, although his memories of WW1 are still very vivid, looking out from behind net curtains to see whether the telegram boy would stop and knock. Now although he can no longer see it, he enjoys the tranquillity of our little flower filled garden and even his Doctor thinks "A pipe a day at this stage won't do too much harm". Happy puffing, Bill.

MARIAN LENDS A HAND

Marian has spent a lifetime helping other people and still likes to sort things out where she can, even if it's only to help Doris when her shoe has fallen off!

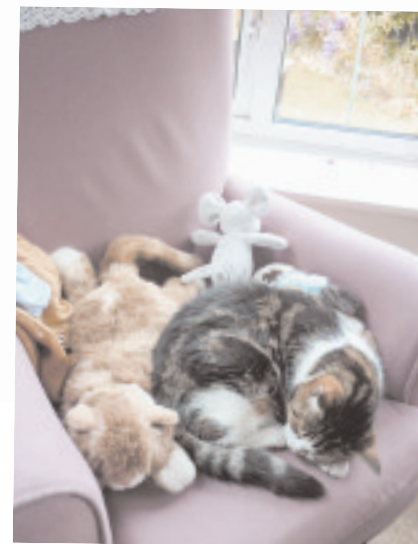

PRETTY RELAXING

Even an active 15 year old has to take a nap sometime, and where better than to curl up with Joan's furry friends and doze in an armchair on a sunny day in front of the garden window? Pretty and Beauty are elderly rescued cats who need a slower pace of life and are enjoying spending the last part of their lives here at Clarondene, alongside other retirees who need a little cossetting and taking care of.

ANYONE ELSE FOR A RACE?

In addition to the 8-seater disability bus, we can be seen walking in View Road on most fine days, as Clarondene is located on one of the only flat streets in Lyme Regis! We study the progress of the neighbour's gardens and admire the sea-views between the trees.

5 * FOOD SAFETY RE-AWARDED

Jacqui, our cook, is to be thoroughly commended for the standard of cleanliness and hygiene (not to mention, her food!) in the kitchen. Last week's West Dorset Environmental Health Inspection went well, Jacqui and Alison's CIEH Level 3 Awards impressed, as did our record keeping. The result = WE KEEP OUR 5 STARS!

OUR YOUNG VISITOR

Pat's children Kay and Colin brought a 9-week Collie to visit, much to everyone's delight. Doris is particularly fond of dogs so she was thrilled to have this affectionate bundle on her lap for a few minutes.

You're always welcome

Do contact me if you require any further information or have any questions. The kettle is always on, so please pop in for a cup of tea and a chat, anytime.

Alison Curtis - Resident Proprietor

Manor House

The Manor House, a grade II listed building, is a residential home for 15 elderly in Seaton, East Devon. The home is a short walk from the town centre and seafront.

The proprietors live on the premises which they feel helps to ensure that high standards are maintained. The home has recently undergone an unannounced inspection by our regulators, the Care Quality Commission (CQC) and has been awarded a 3 star rating demonstrating excellent standards. The Manor House has a cheerful homely atmosphere.

Visitors often remark on how they are made to feel welcome at all times. There are well-trained staff on duty day and night. The Manor House has a small garden at the front and a courtyard garden at the back with a fish pond, bird feeders and often the resident dog and cat.

Our aims are to provide high standards of care, promote independence and to enable residents to live life as they choose. Residents are encouraged to follow their chosen pursuits and we provide a variety of entertainment such as quizzes & games. There are trips out around town and to the seafront and trips out in the charabanc.

An activities/exercise organiser visits once a week. We have frequent visits from musical entertainers. Residents are encouraged to follow their chosen religious beliefs and a clergyman gives a communion service once a month. We always encourage residents to become involved in local events such as exhibitions at the town hall, sea front fetes and the carnival. We have a visiting library service. It is our policy to provide fresh high quality food from local providers. We cater for special diets such as vegetarian or diabetic etc...

We have fifteen single rooms, all fitted with a wash basin. Nine of the rooms also have an ensuite toilet. Residents are encouraged to personalise their rooms with their own belongings including small items of furniture if they wish. Each room is fitted with a Nurse Call system.

In order to ensure that the placement is suitable, prospective clients are encouraged to visit the home with their relatives prior to admission. The proprietors will also visit the prospective resident at their present accommodation. The first month after a resident is admitted to the home is a trial period to see if the resident is happy and to ensure we can provide the level of care required.

On admission a care plan will be made with the involvement of the resident and their relatives - this emphasizes the resident's potential to manage their own lives as independently as possible and to exercise their freedom of choice. Care plans are reviewed monthly or whenever there is a change in resident's care needs.

Fees vary depending upon the level of care required and whether the room has ensuite facilities. Fees include all care and accommodation costs, food, drink, heating, lighting and laundry. They do not cover the costs of newspapers, magazines, hairdressing and dry cleaning.

Michelle Hague Hypnotherapy

Michelle Hague works with all ages, and notices that Our population is becoming older, and as we find ourselves becoming older too, the job of caring and supporting not only ourselves and our children but also increasingly our parents and older relatives is taking its toll.

It is increasingly important to take care of our own health, mental as well as physical and take time to relax and to let go of the stress that we all seem to carry nowadays, in the hectic busy world.

In learning to relax, we can improve our health and well being, and then learn to manage many health issues which are made worse by anxiety and stress.

As more and more medical practitioners; dentists; doctors and nurses train with the London College of Clinical Hypnosis, and their skills and those of all professionals are used in combination with accepted therapeutic interventions such as Cognitive Behavioural Therapy, more people are starting to benefit from its use.

Now, academically researched, and with the inclusion of Clinical Hypnosis and growing understanding of its neurology; psychology and physiological benefits, we can and do see the benefits of using Clinical Hypnosis as an accepted intervention. It is no longer considered to be the stuff of "the stage hypnotist", but a way of facilitating change, helping individuals to move forward, to change old habits and to find preferred ways of being, opening up choice to people.

Michelle's advice is that you should always check the credentials of any Hypnotherapist, it is a good idea to look for 'Clinical Hypnotherapists', you are putting your health and well being and trust in their hands. Make sure that they have been well trained and are covered by a professional body. The British Society of Clinical

Hypnosis (BSCH) is a national professional body whose aim is to promote and assure high standards in the practice of hypnotherapy. Registration demands good quality training, ethical practice and adherence to a code of conduct. You can choose a therapist with confidence from their website. To find out more about training with the London College of Clinical Hypnosis please see www.lcch.co.uk

Debbie Pearce Hypnotherapy

How Hypnotherapy can alleviate the effects of stress:

For many of us stress is a part of normal everyday life: dealing with household accounts and paperwork, traffic hold-ups, troublesome work colleagues, strains in our close relationships, health worries - they can all lead to stress.

If we're unable to cope and the stress is sustained we lose intellectual control and begin to respond to events in our lives in an inappropriately emotional way - taking our anger out on our loved ones, developing debilitating fears about everyday situations, feeling that life is hopeless.

How Hypnotherapy can help:

Hypnotherapy helps by reducing anxiety generally and helping clients to regain a sense of perspective; once anxiety is under control many troublesome symptoms are alleviated. Solution focused therapists encourage positive thinking by helping clients to focus on solutions to problems, rather than dwelling on the problems themselves. Clients usually find their sleep patterns improve through relaxation techniques learned in therapy sessions.

Susan Gale Hypnotherapy

Struggling to make changes? Feeling bad about yourself? Anxious or depressed?

Sometimes it seems something inside ourselves is working against us, on a subconscious level. But hypnotherapy can help you break out of the trap.

Whatever your problem, Hypnotherapy can get to the heart of it, settling you comfortably into a neutral, relaxed state, giving your mind the help it needs to make changes, naturally and effectively. Then you clear the problems and any underlying causes that might otherwise cause future difficulties.

Used properly, modern hypnotherapy takes into account all aspects and treats you as an individual. Sometimes old experiences are relevant, but the over-analytical, regressive approach is no longer necessary with the modern techniques and greater understanding available to experienced therapist Susan Gale of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester.

A Nationally Accredited Hypnotherapist, with a wide range of techniques at hand to solve problems as quickly as possible, she holds the Senior Qualification in Hypnotherapy Practice, and is a Member of the Institute of Natural Therapy.

Or perhaps you're thinking of studying hypnotherapy? Roger Sleet has trained many people for a more satisfying career.

Let us change your view.

At frank we view things differently.

We are equally passionate about property and people, that's why our business is growing from its solid foundations of trust, openness and sincerity. Based on our relationship with our customers and an excellent knowledge of the local area we are confident we can find the right home for you.

The Lyme Bay area is a truly unspoilt part of our country; its character and beauty is undeniable. We have more properties coming onto the market in the towns and villages of West Dorset and East Devon, with some excellent launch offers available.

Why don't you give us a call or, better still, stop by and meet (the) Frank (team). We have a living room in our office so we're always ready to entertain. Whilst we have a chat over a nice hot tea and some local cake you can find out if we can help you buy or sell your property the 'frank way'.

At frank, we see it your way.

Church hosts an evening of jazz

ON Friday, September 24th Ottery St Mary Parish Church will host another evening of jazz.

The Roger Marks' Armada Jazz Band is one of the most popular bands on the west country jazz scene.

This will be the first time the band plays at Ottery St Mary Parish Church.

Described by Jazz UK magazine as: "One of the most popular traditional outfits in the country combining taste, versatility and swing," the band, led by Plymouth based trombonist Roger Marks, has made numerous appearances on BBC radio and TV and is in constant demand at jazz clubs and festivals all over the country.

Profits from the concert will be shared equally between the Help For Heroes charity and the parish church.

Music lovers and jazz fans are urged not to miss what promises to be a feast of good lively music in the beautiful setting of the church.

The show will start at 8pm, and tickets are priced at £10 in advance from Ottery Tourist Information Centre and the church office.

Tickets can also be purchased for £12 on the door.

There will be a licenced bar offering local beer, wine and soft drinks.

◆ ROGER Marks

◆ LEONIE Hodder with two young artists at the exhibition

Pupils' event for Artsfest

LEONIE Hodder, a pupil at Woodroffe School, Lyme Regis, is part of a group of pupils who organised an interactive event inviting visitors to Lyme Regis Museum to create postcard-size pieces of artwork to add to the exhibition.

The exhibition, part of the museum's Artsfest exhibition — which was a nationwide art festival, was called Postcard from Lyme.

Talk will bring the coast to life

ON October 23rd and 24th Lyme Regis Museum has organised a series of daytime talks which will bring to life the history and science of the Jurassic Coast.

The talks are to be given by internationally acclaimed experts on climate change, dinosaurs and Mary Anning.

Professor Mike Benton of Bristol University will be talking about the latest cutting-edge research into the colour of dinosaurs.

Mike, who worked on the BBC series Walking with Dinosaurs, will talk about how the latest scientific research is helping to unravel the mystery what colour dinosaurs were and how scientists are using technology to make new discoveries.

Sir Crispin Tickell, whose distinguished career includes time as the diplomat responsible for the British Antarctic Territory and ambassador to the United Nations, will be talking about the major natural disasters that have shaped the earth and life on it, including the events that created the special geology and fossils of Lyme Regis.

Sir Crispin, who is a descendant of Mary Anning's family, was one of the first people to write influentially on climate change and his 1977 book Climatic Change and World Affairs identified the need for international pollution control long before most people were aware of this world-changing issue.

Professor Hugh Torrens is Emeritus Professor of the History of Science and Technology at Keele University and the acknowledged world expert on Mary Anning.

The title of his talk will be The Start of Dino-Mania and in it he will bring to life the work of fossil monster hunters Mary Anning and the obsessive Thomas Hawkins.

These talks will take place in the Marine Theatre and at Woodmead Hall in Lyme Regis.

For event times, ticket prices and more information about the Mary Anning Weekend, visit Lyme Regis Museum's website at www.lymeregismuseum.co.uk.

Tickets for the events, which include refreshments, can be purchased from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138 or by emailing lymeregis.tic@westdorset-dc.gov.uk.

◆ MARY Anning

A film from time to time

DEVON Moviola, in association with Yacombe Film Night, presents the movie From Time to Time (12A).

Written and directed by Moviola's Patron Julian Fellowes — from Lucy M Boston's book The Chimneys of Green Knowe — and filmed at Athelhampton.

Tolly Oldknow (Alex Etel) is sent away from wartime London to stay with his grandmother (Maggie Smith) in her ancient house in the country.

There past and present intersect and he finds himself able to move among the house's ghosts.

Gradually he begins to unravel the mystery which has bewildered his family for two centuries.

The showing will be at Yacombe Village Hall on Thursday, October 14th at 7.30pm.

Doors open at 7pm. Tickets cost £5 and are available from Lesley Sutton on 01404 861386 or A'rary Smith on 01404 861541.

For more information visit www.moviola.org.

Hybrid Jazz takes cover

CAR OF THE WEEK

Rousdon Car Centre,
Lyme Regis 01297 444544

FORD KA
£3,295

www.rousdoncarcentre.co.uk

HONDA has released the first details of its latest hybrid model.

Set to appear in the UK early next year, the firm's Jazz Hybrid will make its public debut at the Paris Motor Show. Staking its claim to being the first B-segment car offering hybrid technology, the Jazz mirrors its larger brothers with its petrol-electric set-up — the electric motor assisting the petrol engine when more performance is needed.

Despite the inclusion of the hybrid hardware Honda insists that the conventional Jazz's practical reputation remains intact. The hybrid variant retains the model's 'Magic Seats' feature and the car's trademark 831 litres of load space.

Like other hybrids the Jazz will be congestion charge exempt, while the car's official 64.2mpg economy figure and 104g/km CO2 rating should make it popular with both private buyers and company car drivers keen to save money.

Pricing and specification details for the Jazz Hybrid are expected to be announced closer to the car's launch.

THE NEW WRX STI RANGE. UNCOMMON PERFORMANCE, UNCOMMON HANDLING, UNDILUTED DRIVING PLEASURE.

The new Subaru WRX STI is unlike anything else on the road. With a choice of 4 door or 5 door, it combines power, precision and performance with everyday practicality, putting it in a class of its own. This difference begins with the supreme balance and control that comes from Symmetrical All-Wheel Drive and the Subaru Boxer engine. These two work perfectly together to create a harmony of power and control that extends to every component found on the WRX STI. Combined with our legendary spec.C suspension, the result is a vehicle that excites in every corner, exhilarates with every rev of the engine, and inspires every time you take hold of the wheel.

THE first Vauxhall Astra Sports Tourer has rolled off the production line at the firm's plant in Ellesmere Port.

The five-door model goes on sale in mainland Europe from November and in the UK in the New Year.

Ellesmere Port is the only Vauxhall factory making the new car.

Tony Woodley, joint leader of Unite, said: "From the dark days of 12 months ago, when the world's biggest company went into chapter 11 and bankruptcy was close by, there is no doubt that this is a good news day."

"But we now need to ensure there is enough work to support three shifts at Ellesmere Port, and a secure future too for the Luton factory."

■ Audi has announced details of the latest addition to the hotly anticipated A1 supermini range, with a 183bhp version set to make its public debut at the Paris Motor Show.

The 1.4 TFSI 185PS will use the German manufacturer's supercharged and turbocharged direct injection petrol unit to achieve zero to 62mph acceleration in just 6.9 seconds and a top speed of 141 mph while returning a predicted 47.9mpg on the combined cycle and producing a provisional 139g/km CO₂.

The model, which will be available for UK customers to order in late 2010, will come with the twin-clutch, seven-speed S-Tronic transmission as standard and will be restricted to luxurious S Line specification.

An electronic limited slip differential system will be present, braking the inside wheel during cornering to reduce understeer, alongside 17-inch alloy wheels, part-leather seats, remote central locking, air conditioning, electric front windows and mirrors, Bluetooth, an auxiliary iPod connection and a 6.5-inch retractable display.

Audi will announce pricing closer to the vehicle's UK launch.

EAST DEVON SHORT MAT BOWLS

WITH the first round mostly complete all results have so far gone with home advantage.

In the Evening League Colyton celebrated their return to Division One by winning 5-3 while West Hill won 6-2.

In the second division the winning margins were 7-1 for Awliscombe B, 8-0 for Uptonery.

In the Afternoon Division One every game was won by a 6-2 margin, Lyme Regis, Musbury and Uptonery in division two.

The two local derby matches at Awliscombe and Sidford were both won by the A team.

Looking ahead would you please ensure that your club diary includes 19th March when we will be holding our Terry Trott Fours and the Open Pairs Day at Donyatt.

Details will follow in the New Year.

AXMINSTER INDOOR BOWLS CLUB

WITH another winter fast approaching the club wishes all members a successful and happy Indoor Bowling Season.

The Ladies started their Season in great style with an excellent win at Sidmouth (74-41) with Brenda Edwards, Chris Hobbs, Chris Todd, and Nola Stephens in convincing form (36-13).

We have managed only one win in the four friendly mixed matches played thus far.

We started with a narrow defeat at home to Dunkeswell (55-57) with Jean Kesterton, Neil Solomon, Jan Parsons, and Brian Clark playing well (21-15), before losing to Honiton, again at home, by 15 shots — our best effort being a tie by Barbara Mowatt, Ann Clayton, and David Harris (20-20).

Next, despite winning two of the three rinks played, we lost by 62 to 75 shots at Padbrook Park with a top rink of Les Monk, Chris Hobbs, David Harris, and Jean Kesterton (25-17) — a special mention here for Lilian Lovatt, Marion Harris, Ann Clayton, and Bob Sherborne who turned a teatime deficit of 4-14 into a 24-18 victory.

Finally we enjoyed a good victory at home to Chard (81-41) with an excellent performance from Lilian Lovatt, Pam Clark, Chris Todd, and Frank Lintott (35-10).

Our internal leagues are now all under way and again I wish everyone success in these.

A very high standard is displayed in all these games and are a treat to watch as well as to play in.

Anyone interested in learning to play should come along to our coaching evenings on Tuesdays between 6.30 and 8.30pm.

AXMINSTER CRICKET CLUB

Family affair at club's annual award evening

MEMBERS gathered for the annual presentation evening held in the clubhouse at Cloakham Lawn.

In the unavoidable absence of chairman John Isles, the proceedings were in the control of the club president Les Haynes.

For most of the evening the awards turned out to be very much a family affair as father and son Steve and Tristan Wakeley stole most of the honours with regard to the first and third XI awards.

This was only a reflection on the excellent season they have had with Tristan, having scored 540 league runs taking the first XI batting, fielding and Player of the Year awards together with a copy of the score sheet denoting his first century for the club.

Dad Steve took all the honours for the third XI having had his most successful season ever with the club.

He also took away the award for the best bowling performance of the season with a haul of 6-37 against Whimple CC.

The first XI bowling award went to the ever reliable Alex Wright (28 wickets in the league) and in a none too successful season for the very young second XI it was two youngsters who took the honours with 15-year-old Steve Pile scoring over 500 runs to win the batting award and 14-year-old Dan Fuzzard collecting the bowling cup for his 16 league wickets.

For the fourth XI James Rockett won the bowling award whilst two of the ladies of the club featured in the fourth XI awards with vice captain Emily Broad taking the batting trophy and Sue Brown the Player of the Year award.

The Dick Bird Trophy for the club member of the year award went for the second year running to Brian Prior. Axminster Womens section won the Women's League first Division by a considerable margin. Kez Wakley took away the batting award and Katie Jones the bowling with Sophia Brown that for the most improved player.

Emily Broad was also presented with the Rotary Club Young Member of the Year award.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

"WHERE are we going next?" It was the question constantly being asked round the course on Sunday as players referred to the helpful map on the back of the score card.

We were playing a mixed Cross Country Stableford where all the holes had been redesigned to effect 16 shorter but interestingly complex new ones.

The first hole had us teeing off from the fourth tee and then playing back on yourself to the 7th green.

So, Jan Dickinson's achievement on the redesigned 17th was all the more remarkable. Teeing off from in front of the 18th tee (stroke index 9) she hit her ball via a plethora of leaves and branches through a mini forest towards the 11th green (stroke index 3) and managed to record a legitimate 'hole in one' scoring 6 Stableford points on her card in the process.

Jan took first prize in the ladies section with 29points on count back from J Watts with E Davies third on 28points. The men's result was equally as close with D Noar's winning 35points beating D Chaffey and A Wagner on 34points respectively.

Tuesday Mixed

Members enjoyed the good weather for Tuesday's Mixed Fours competition. This week was Alternate Shots Stableford. The winning pair with 34 points were Jennifer Pyle and Stan Squire, followed very closely by Linda Northover and Max Pipe with 33points.

Third place was Elizabeth Ward with husband John, 31points on c/b.

Members enjoyed a trip away to Highbullen Golf Club with overnight stay organised by Geoff and Sheila Banks.

Thursday's competition was played - individual Stableford - but Friday's competition had to be cancelled due to rain. The winning lady with 36points was Sue Ritchie. The winning man with 35points was Paul Ritchie on countback from Stan Squire.

Ladies Section

The Monthly Stableford results were: Silver, Sue Ritchie 35pts; 2nd - Tricia Swindell 33pts. Bronze 1, Rosemary Greenhorn 35pts; 2nd Chris Luttmann 31pts. Bronze 2, Lesley Oxenham 31pts.

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

THE Seniors lost two fixtures in the last few days due to the weather.

Firstly the inter-club match with Taunton Vale at Axe Cliff was abandoned when relentless rain drove the players from the course.

Three days later the October Medal was a non-starter, but fortunately the weather relented on Monday and the return inter-club match with Libbaton was played in excellent conditions.

As Axe Cliff had surprised Libbaton by holding them to a 3-3 draw at High Bickington in July the visitors were taking no chances and fielded a stronger team which in the end beat the home team by 3.5- 2.5.

Winning pairings for Axe Cliff were John Mant and Jack Bannister and Mike Tomes and Iain Bain.

The half point was won by Peter Knighting and Malcolm Glass.

Last Sunday the main club had to postpone its competition due to very bad weather.

The Ladies Section also had to cancel a couple of friendly matches once again due to very heavy rain.

However, on Wednesday the weather was glorious and they were able to compete for the EWGA Medal, also the Lorraine Cup for those who were eligible and the second round of the Freddie Newbery Putting Competition.

The winner of the medal was Sandra Walker (16) with a nett 73.

HONITON NETBALL LEAGUE

DIVISION ONE

'Visions 24, Bo-Peeps 33, Keeley's Angels 25, Flamingos 45, Wasps 36, Uplowman 12

AT the end of the evening only Wasps retained their unbeaten record — thanks to a fine win over Uplowman.

The top spot was retained by Flamingos thanks to their win over Keeley's Angels, whilst Bo-Peeps moved off the bottom and up to fifth courtesy of their fine victory over 'Visions.

Flamingos held onto top spot when they defeated defending champions Keeley's Angels. The game started evenly with Flamingos edging the first period by 10-8, a lead they had increased to 21-14 by half way. The Flamingos stormed ahead in the third period to lead 34-18 going into the final session. Tracey Moran at centre for Angels forced her side to work hard and they had done enough at the end of the game to gain a point from their 25-45 defeat, a result that kept them in fifth place.

Wasps became the only undefeated side in the division when they recorded a convincing win over Uplowman. Uplowman could never get to grips with the Wasps attack and ended the evening winners by 36-12.

Bo-Peeps started the evening as the only team in the top flight without a win, and they were up against 'Visions. Bo-Peeps had the better of the first period and led by 9-7. With Claire Greysmark playing well at GK the 'Visions attack were finding it hard and the Peeps continued to move ahead so that at the start of the final quarter they were 26-17 in front.

With Sally George working well at centre for 'Visions the final period went goal for goal but Bo-Peeps had done enough to record a victory with a 33-24 win that moved them off the bottom.

DIVISION TWO

Hi Q 31, NAS Vehicle Repairs 23, Sidmouth Toucans 31, Lyme Bay 18, Tip Top Trees 42, CMC Birds 20

At the start of the evening two teams retained an unbeaten record — with Hi Q and Tip Top Trees both remaining unbeaten.

Hi Q were up against NAS Vehicle

Repairs who have had a mixed start to their campaign. With Bev Hellyer playing well it was Hi Q who had the best of the early exchanges and by half way they were 19-9 to the good. In the third period the NAS centre Emma Griffin got her side working together well and it went goal for goal with Hi Q 26-16 in front.

The final period belonged to NAS as they reduced the deficit but it was too late to dent the Hi Q lead, so Hi Q finished victors by 31-23 and NAS had to be content with a point.

Tip Top Trees retained their unbeaten record thanks to a win over CMC Birds who were playing only their second game of the campaign to date, 3Ts led 11-4 at quarter time and were 19-9 in front at half way.

D & E LEAGUE — AXMOUTH UTD

AXMOUTH United's fine start to the season came to an abrupt end with a 3-1 home defeat to a strong visiting Honiton Town side.

The home side started poorly and never really got going on a day when the whole team seemed to have an off day. Inside the first minute Honiton were gifted a great chance to take the lead when a poor back pass allowed the visitors a one on one but returning keeper Andrew Smart made a fine save low to his left.

The home side were almost unrecognisable from a team that has won their opening four games and the visitors prevented them playing any decent football with their disciplined and well organised approach.

In a tight and physical opening neither side really created too much and another defensive mix-up allowed the visiting striker time and space on the edge of the area to fire home the opener after 20 minutes.

It remained a tight and well contested half with only the odd chance until Honiton were again presented with a chance to go two up when a clearance was deflected straight to their striker who turned and finished well.

Just before half time the home side wasted their best chance when a free kick was directed perfectly over the defence but Christian Burridge almost caught it too well as the ball came over his shoulder and he got a firm foot to the difficult chance which lifted the ball over the bar and Axmouth went in 2-0 down at the break.

Immediately at the start of second half the home side had a great chance to reduce the deficit with a breakaway which saw them have a two on one, Reece Hales played a fine pass although the pace of it took Asa Sandman slightly wider than he'd have liked and though his firm strike beat the keeper it also went wide.

An injury to Daniel Reynolds early in the half saw the reintroduction of Charlie Clarke after missing five games and within 30 seconds he made his mark charging down a clearance which rebounded to Sandman who was able to slide the ball across the box for Clarke to tap home.

The home side were lifted and pressed hard but still couldn't create much. Then on 70 minutes a long clearance from the visitors caused confusion in the home defence and one bounce allowed the visitors to lob the advancing Smart who had no chance.

In a physical game, where the referee awarded five yellow cards, there were very few chances and plenty of free-kicks making it a stop start game.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE ROUND-UP

CONTROVERSY FOR HOME WIN

BEER Albion are through to the third round of the Devon Premier Cup after they won a thriller against fellow Devon and Exeter side Topsham Town 4-3.

The fishermen were two goals down but hit back by half-time to 2-2. Then Beer led 3-2, Topsham levelled it but Mike Wheeler grabbed an 85th minute winner for the fishermen.

Sadly the tie ended in controversy when the Topsham manager was sent off after coming on as substitute but that in no way distracted from a terrific home victory.

John Cooper with a penalty, Matt Rowson, and James Melville were the other Beer scorers.

Neighbours Seaton Town also went through 3-2 against Bere Alston after being a goal behind at the break. Substitute Alex Wheatley then came on and rescued Seaton with a double strike, and Ben Ede made it 3-1.

Bere got a late second with a penalty in the last minute but Seaton held out with ease.

Hatherleigh Town felt that sloppy defending cost them against Axminster Town who were 4-0 winners. Hatherleigh struggled to get their game together in either half.

◆ BEER Albion win a thriller game against Topsham Town in the Devon Premier Cup

Feniton lost their unbeaten record in Division One going down 2-0 at home to University, but Honiton Town are still waiting to taste success after they were clipped 4-3 by Cullompton Rangers. Jamie Cottrell (2), Alvin Pollard and Chris Yelland netted the Rangers goals. Tim Genders, Sam Farmer and Mark Bowles with a penalty replied for Honiton.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE — COLYTON

On the edge of promotion

Divison Two
Colyton 2 v Newtown Reserves 0

COLYTON made two changes to the starting line up that beat North Tawton last weekend.

Gary May and Wayne Waddon returned to the heart of the defence with Erich Busby dropping to the bench and club skipper Gary Millman away on holiday.

Colyton made a very bright start and forced a corner in the opening minute. A trademark inch perfect delivery from Gary Sims caused mayhem in the Newtown area, but they somehow managed to scramble away from danger.

In the first half Coly struggled to play with any rhythm or pace and with Newtown not able to bring anything to the party — it was all a bit gloomy.

One flash of inspiration from Richard Tratt livened up the half on the half hour but his goal bound shot was somehow hacked off the goal line.

The second period was a revelation; Coly really took the game at Newtown from the restart, creating several good opportunities with some excellent interplay and off the ball running.

This was much better, there was some real desire and enthusiasm on display.

Colyton were solid at the back and looked dangerous with every attack. On 62 minutes the opening goal finally arrived, a Sims corner found Jimmy Richards on the edge of the area, he unleashed a tremendous shot, which cannoned off the far post and rebounded to Sims who hit an unstoppable drive into the roof of the net for a well-deserved lead.

Five minutes later Colyton were presented with a golden opportunity to extend the lead as Callum Somers was upended in the area but uncharacteristically the ever-reliable Mike Cullom blasted his spot kick miles over the crossbar.

This obviously gave Newtown a great lift and for 10 minutes they put Colyton under pressure.

Coly regained control and Tratt settled the nerves in the 74th minute by tapping home the rebound from his own shot, which the keeper could not hold on to.

Colyton then launched wave after wave of attacks in the final quarter and but for three excellent saves from the Newtown keeper, the final score line would have been greatly improved.

The win took Colyton up to fourth place in the Division Two table and on the edge of a promotion place.

Gym coach picked to judge Europeans

By ANDERS LARSSON
 sport@indienews.co.uk

HONITON Gym Club coach James Reddy has been chosen by Great Britain selectors to judge at the European Team Championships for acrobatic gymnastics in Poland next week.

This is the second 'major championships' call-up for James this year, following his trip to the senior world championships in July, where former Honiton gymnast Douglas Fordyce took the gold medal in the men's pair event.

James said: "It's an honour to be chosen for your country — whether it's as a competitor or a judge — and I'm looking forward to seeing some of the best acrobats on the continent again and judging them with a critical eye.

"Quite often when I'm judging, I get the chance to see new acrobatic moves and new methods of coaching. I can then bring these ideas back to Honiton, and hopefully it helps our own gymnasts get a step closer to competing in major championships."

James, who himself was a member of the Great Britain team for almost 10 years, is a high performance coach at Honiton Gym Club. Alongside Emma Smith and his fiancé Helen Naylor he coaches the 'squad acro 1' group four times per week, which contains regional, national and international performers. James's full time job is as the marketing communications manager for sustainable energy delivery experts Regen SW.

James added: "When I go away to these competitions, the level of performance is exceptional, and it's common to see acrobats lifting on one arm to a handstand and performing a triple somersault.

"However, when I speak to their coaches, the message is always the same: their gymnasts started at the age of four or five, having fun, playing gymnastics games, and learning basic body skills — and the hard work and dedication came a few years later.

"And we've started doing things in a similar way at Honiton: we've ramped up our 'Gym Crazy Kids' and recreational group sessions, so that young children can come, make friends, and have lots of fun while learning fundamental gymnastic moves. It's proved so popular that we've just had to add in extra sessions to meet the demand."

James will be in Rzeszow in Poland from October 20th to 24th, and will be judging both the senior and junior team competitions.

When he judged at the world championships in July, the Great Britain team brought back two golds, and a silver medal, placing them second in the team competition.

Six members of the team that James took out were from 2010 Britain's Got Talent winners Spelbound.
